The Mattatuck Unitarian Universalist Society in Woodbury will be holding our annual service and talent auction on Saturday, October 25, 2008 at 6 PM at our meeting house. As our major fundraiser this event supports the programs our community benefits from throughout the year. Items and services for the auction come from members, friends and local businesses. Your contribution toward the success of this evening will be appreciated as we strive to raise much needed funds to support the continued operations of our church.

Our auction catalogue will showcase the items, services, special events, and getaways to bid on. In addition, we will feature advertisements and coupons from area businesses as a way to thank them for their continued support. Tickets for this year's auction and dinner are available on Sundays and can be reserved by calling Christine Edelson 203-267-6772. All are welcome.

MUUS was founded in 1980 by individuals in search of a local liberal religious community and is affiliated with the Unitarian Universalist Association which has its headquarters in Boston. MUUS is a Welcoming Congregation whereby race, color, physical limitation or sexual preferences are no barrier to membership.

Sincerely,
